Miss Stuart Gives Illustrated Talk Before Members

A general meeting of the Junior Audubon Societies of Washington School was held in the auditorium of the high school yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

An interesting program was rendered by the pupils of the various grades. After the program Miss Katherine Stuart gave a very interesting talk on the birds that are common to this locality. Her talk was illustrated by stuffed specimens that she had out for exhibition, thus being able to point out to her audience the different markings and the habits of each little feathered friend.

In the Washington school there are now six Junior Audubon Societies, making a total membership of one hundred and seventy-nine. Last year the societies of this school raised a fund to put the thirty-room martin house, which has been recently erected on the High School grounds. The material in this house cost $24.80. The Audubon Societies are very much indebted to Mr. Charles Emerson who built the house free of charge.

FEDERAL FORCES JOIN IN REVOLT

State Government Reported Moved to Cordova.

STRATS NEW REVOLT

Puebla Leader Declares He Will Not Aid Obregon Cause—Famine Imminent

Washington, May 9.—The Federal garrison at Vera Cruz has revolted and left the city, according to authoritative advices received here. The State Government of Vera Cruz has been removed from Cordovan to the city of Vera Cruz. It also was reported that the Pan-American railway from Tonala to the Guatemala border is in the hands of the revolutionists.

Authoritative advices reaching Washington today said Gonzales had declared that he was not in league with the Obregonistas and would resist them by force of arms. This was regarded as complicating the situation in Mexico. Gonzales has declared martial law in Peubla City, according to these advices, and has exacted a loan of 200,000 pesos from the population.

Passenger traffic between Mexico City and Guadalajara has been suspended. A passenger train on this line was attacked by rebels at Penjamo on May 5 and robbed of a considerable sum of Government funds intended to be used in paying the soldiers at Guadalajara, where, at last advices, General Gieguez had 8,000 men in his command.

The State Department has no confirmation of a private message received here from Mexico City via Laredo that Carranza had left the Mexican capital for Vera Cruz. The private advices said the President left Mexico City Thursday night accompanied by a guard of troops under General Aguilar.

Official advices from the American Embassy at Mexico City said E. F. Greenlaw, the American, and his son who were killed last Saturday near Mexico City were robbed at the same time of a part of the company payroll amounting to 4,500 pesos. Greenlaw was 63 years old and his son 32. Mrs. Greenlaw and a minor child are in Mexico City.

Laredo, Texas, May 8.—The mounted customs guards at Nuevo Laredo mutinied Thursday, declaring for the Sonora revolution, and after an exchange of shots with Federal troops fled in the direction of Columbia, 25 miles up the Rio Grande.

El Paso, Tex., May 8.—Mobilization of troops, believed to be intended for use in a concerted attack on Mexico City, continued yesterday at Juarez, as authentic information regarding the numerous reports of flight of President Carranza before the spread of the revolution was awaited. According to the reports here concerning the departure of Carranza, his son-in-law, Candido Aguilar, went to Vera Cruz several days ago to prepare for the president's coming.

T. B. Beltran, commercial agent of the Liberal Constitutional Party at El Paso, is authority for the statement that impending famine in Mexico City had forced Carranza to seek a compromise with the revolutionary forces.

FIRE IN HOTEL

Seventy-five guests were driven from their rooms in scanty clothing when fire of unknown origin broke out on the fifth floor of the Richmond Hotel, Seventeenth and H streets, Washington, at 2 o'clock this morning, causing damage to the extent of $15,000.

Thirteen fire companies which responded to the three alarm signal confined the spectacular blaze to the H street side of the top stories of the building.

TRAIN WRECK

Cars Derailed Turn Over on R., F. & P., No One Seriously Hurt

Two hundred passengers on the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac mixed train due in Washington at 7 o'clock last night were badly shaken when three of the four passenger coaches and two freight cars jumped the rails near Lunt, Va., five miles below Alexandria, about 6.30 o'clock yesterday evening. A defective flange caused the derailment. No one was seriously hurt.

The train was going 40 miles an hour when the first freight car left the track and overturned. The trucks slipped from under the other freight car and three of the coaches, sending them in different directions without however, turning over. A large quantity of produce, including milk and eggs, was destroyed.

Successful Affair

Large Audience Present at Young People's Building

The entertainment by the Henry K. Field Bible Class, in the Young People's Building last night, was a splendid success, in every way. The house was filled with the members of the H. K. Field Class for men and the N. S. Greenway Class for women, and their friends.

The program was of high order and excellently rendered. Misses Pierpoint and Callahan rendered pleasing solos; Mr. A. J. Rhodes, of the Torpedo Plant, gave several recitations. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clark were excellent in their dialogues and recitations, in costume.

The Montrose Quartet, from Washington, captivated the audience with their vocal and instrumental selections.

Mr. Arthur Pierce, also of Washington, a noted entertainer, was delightfully humerous in his songs and impersonations.

Short talks weer made by Rev. Dr. E. V. Regester, and John H. Trimyer, teacher of the class.

Mr. J. E. W. Timberman, president of the class, gracefully and tactfully conducted the exercises.

AMPHITHEATER AT ARLINGTON

Will Be Dedicated Next Saturday Afternoon

ERECTION COSTS $825,000

Dedication Under Auspices of G. A. R., and Veterans of Other Wars—Splendid Mortuary Monument

Conspicuous on the high green hills which make the horizon of Washington D. C., is a new and beautiful building of white marble. It is the Memorial Amphi-theater which embellishes Arlington National Cemetery, the Nation's sacred city of her dead heroes.

This edifice, which will be dedicated by the Grand Army of the Republic and veterans of other wars May 15, is the most splendid mortuary monument ever erected by any natich.

There is nothing like it in the whole world. Other nations have erected monuments to successful generals, admirals, and statesmen. They have provided famous places of sepulture like Westminster Abbey, Pere La Chaise, the Pantheon, and the Pyramids of Egypt. But Westminster Abbey is reserved for men of the highest distinction in any walk of life—statesmanship, invention, science, letters, philanthropy as well as war. It is the same with Pere La Chaise, while the pyramids were tombs for kings and queens only.

The first National cemetery was established at Gettysburg to make an honored resting place for those who on that great battlefield gave their lives that the Natich might live.

Then came the inspiration of making at Arlington a cemetery that would be national in its widest sense.

The long green slope from the Potomac to the crest of Arlington Heights is a purapet; in the springtime bright with luxuriant laurel and wild azaleas; in summer opulent as the leafage of Vallombrosa; in the autumn warlike with the vermilion banners of the black gum and scarlet maple; in the winter sternly grand with the stalwart boles of primeval oaks stripped for battle with the fierce storms. It overlooks the city of Washington as the boxes in a theater do the stage. Below it flows the lordly Potomac; below it rises the majestic Capitol, with its imperial dome and wide extending colonnade; below it rise the high-steepled churches and the massive public buildings.

More than 100,000 men died from the Rappahannock to the Potomac in defending Washington from the Confederate armies, and 20,000 of them sleep in Arlington, their graves directly overlooking the city for whose defense they died.

Mountains on the central plateau of Sahara desert are covered with snow three months of the year.

IN MEMORIAM

VIOLETT—In sad but loving remembrance of my dear wife, Annie E. Violett, who departed this life May 9, 1914, six years ago tomorrow.

Death has robbed me of my wife,
Of the one I loved so well;
Taken from this world of sorrow,
Safely home with Him to dwell.
When I saw my dear wife,
Whom I tended with such a care
Slowly fading from my presence,
How my aching heart despaired.
When the evening shades are gathering,
And I sit all alone,
In my heart there comes a longing,
If she could only come home.
Our hearts are sad and lonely now,
Our grief too deep to tell;
But time will come, we know not when,
That we may with you dwell.
Friends may think I will soon forget you,
And my wounded heart be healed;
But they little know the sorrow
That's within my heart concealed.
In the graveyard, softly sleeping,
Where the flowers gently wave,
Lies the one I love so dearly,
In her lonely, silent grave.

By her loving husband,
111-1p Charles A. Violett.

IMPRESSIONS OF A VISITOR IN THE FRESHMAN CLASS

Yesterday I was the guest of the freshmen class. We started the day trying to solve 12-1 rows 22-1 and came out victorious. From algebra we hastened to english where the "how" and the "why" of the english language was impressed upon us. I accompanied the class over the hills of Scotland in the spirit of chivalry and romance that the 'Lady of The Lake" so deeply inspires in one. And was awakened from my imaginary journey to things more mundane. For now we assemble in our science class to spend another forty minutes on rejuvenated rivers and cyclonic wind storms. From science we went to arithmetic and built floors and ceilings in imaginary buildings, made out checks to unknown people and increased Mr. A or B's income 10 per cent.

Thirty minutes for luncheon before deciphering latin phrases and telling the world at large that "Galba est agricola." After latin then ancient history. Here we visited everything from the Isles of Greece to the catacombs of Rome and reluctantly returned to earth when the bell rang for the last period which was study hour. During study hour some were working algebra for the next day, others studying their latin and all seemed rather relieved when the final bell for dismissal rang, only to come away from school for that day with plans for the next seething in their minds.

AN ATTEMPT TO BE FUNNY

During recent years attempts have been made to cause an exotic growth to take root in Washington. Thousands of dollars have been expended and are still being spent by men who having been blessed with wealth who aspire to power and notoriety. Lacking genius, they find their growth in either direction dwarfed. The exotic to which we refer is one of the papers of this day with its sensational and often misleading headlines. It might be likened to an onion, which, if left alone will bring forth large stalks while the bulb is diminutive, if not worthless.

This production metamorphosed in individuality as well as its publications to the whims of those who open their purses to keep it going is shoved under the noses of Alexandrians by enterprising boys before the editions of more sober journals are circulated in the afternoon. The headlines extending across the front page are generally rehashes of news which had been printed in the morning papers. Some few Alexandrians, with more time than others, purchase this paper and, after glancing at the headings, promptly drop it on cars, doorsteps or on the streets to be blown by the wind in different directions.

This parody on journalism, after striving to attain an Alexandria clientele, attempts to be funny at our expense by ridiculing the efforts now being made by our people to obtain a revision census of Alexandria. Its attempts at wit are far-fetched. No one laughs, no one cries.

We do not believe this paper represents the sentiments of the good people of Washington, many of whom are of Alexandria birth or descent.

We want merely what belongs to us, and if we believe the census figures need revising, we have an undoubted right to do so, which we intend to do regardless of this paper, which represents itself only.

DANGER TO LITTLE ONES

It is often said that angels look out for helpless children. It seems that some unseen powers do very often, and many incidents could be related which would add strength to this belief. But occasionally some terrible incidents befalls little ones notwithstanding the abovve impression.

A day or two ago A. M. Remschel, a dealer in automobiles and one of the most careful operators of cars in our city, was running a machine down King street. While passing over the square between Pitt and St. Asaph streets, two small children ran from the sidewalk directly in front of his machine, causing him to hastily stopped with his back wheels skidding. Mr. Remschel, who was going at the lawful rate of twelve miles an hour, always on the alert to avoid accidents, instantly applied his brake and stopped his car, only two feet, however, from the boy.

The above is written for the benefit of parents to caution them to allow their little ones to take care of themselves. In their innocence, the children are likely to dart out of their way while they are walking into danger.

THEN AND NOW

Benjamin Franklin says his autobiography says in his young days he lived satisfactorily in Philadelphia on an expenditure of 36 cents a week. Franklin and several fellow-workmen purchased articles which entered their larder and paid a woman to do the cooking. Their individual outlays were a fraction over two cents a day.

Were the philosopher with us today he would have much to say concerning the high cost of living, while his "Poor Richard's Almanac" would contain many practical suggestions designed to meet prevailing conditions.

PERCENTAGE OF INCREASE

The complete report of the National Industrial Conference Board on the increase in cost of living, which will be available in a few weeks, will show women's footwear far down on the list of necessaries which have taken unprecedented advances in price since July, 1914. Here is a table, drawn from the report, which shows the percentage of increase in 12 classes of food supplies and articles of wearing apparel, including women's shoes: Percales, 422; overalls, 247.2; men's overcoats, 230.2; women's knit vests, 230; men's work shirts, 228.4; sugar, 204; potatoes, 203; women's kid gloves, 217.1; men's underwear, 211.6; women's shoes, 200.4; women's coats, 204.4; muslins, 142.5.

LAYMAN'S OBLIGATION

That the laity of the church has a very definite responsibility in relation to the church particularly at the present time, when discontent, dissatisfaction and social unrest pervade the industrial world, was the thought brought out strongly this week in the closing session of the seventy-second convention of the Richmond Convocation of the Diocese of Virginia.

Thomas B. Howell led the discussion of the general subject, "Latent Resources of Laymen in the Church," taking his talk on the quotation, "Why stand ye here all the day idle?" The duty of the laity, as Mr. Howell sees it, is the daily obligation to serve God and humanity in doing something for the other fellow that is worth while. Mr. Howell declared that Christianity is not a mere incident in the lives of people, but was to be lived every day of the year in all relations.

Following Mr. Howell, John S. Bryan, well known newspaper man, spoke on the subject of the layman's inspiration or his work in the church.

Mr. Bryan's talk was an interesting practical discussion of the duty of the individual layman in relation to the church. He declared with emphasis that if the church did not cause people to believe more in God to be cleaner, stronger and better, to be less arrogant and more kind, then they should get out of the church.

Prior to the fifteenth century Jews received excellent treatment from the Moors in Spain.

THAT KNIFE-LIKE PAIN

Is Only One of Nature's Warnings of Weak or Disordered Kidneys

Have you a lame back, aching day and night? Do you feel sharp pains after stooping? Are the Kidneys sore? Is their action irregular? Use Doan's Kidney Pills—the medicine recommended by so many Alexandria people. Read this case:

Mrs. A. M. Madison, 323 North Royal street, Alexandria, says: "I was so bad off with kidney complaint I had to go to bed. My back hurt me as though I were being pierced with a sharp knife. I couldn't turn from one side to the other, but was just helpless. When I was able to get up around at all I had to have help to do everything. I couldn't even lace by own shoes, and I was so nervous my hands would shake like a leaf when I tried to hold anything. The way my kidneys acted showed they were in bad shape. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Creighton's Drug Store and I was certainly filled with joy before I had used them very long. The misery left me and I felt like myself again."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Madison had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

CHURCH SCORES BLUE LAWS

Des Moines, Iowa, May 8.—"Blue laws," whether of Methodist or other origin, drew heavy fire in the Methodist General Conference here yesterday.

"Nonsensical" and "ridiculous" were terms applied to Methodist laws said to govern the civil life of Tangier Island, in Chesapeake Bay, where a boy was shot because he failed to attend church on Sunday.

"We invite but never compel our members to attend church," the Rev. G. D. Crissman, Council Bluffs, Iowa, said. "The church can't tolerate a minister of the gospel who rules his flock like a Czar, as the pastor at Tangier Island is alleged to rule his.

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Let There Be No Discords

If your Ford car is out of tune, there is undoubtedly a very good reason for it. And the best way to find that reason, and have it remedied, is to jump in and drive to our authorized Service station, where one of our mechanics who is thoroughly acquainted with the Ford mechanism and who knows the Ford way to adjust or repair your car, can tune it up in a garage that is properly equipped to give real Ford service. Then, too we never use imitation parts—only the Genuine Ford-made, strong and durable. They wear from thirty to seventy-five per cent longer than the counterfeit parts that are softer and more cheaply made. In fact it is dangerous to human life to use imitation parts, and it is not fair to your Ford car or your pocket book.

We are a part of the gigantic Ford Service organization whose purpose it is to serve the owners of all Ford cars and trucks; we have more than a passing interest in your car. Prompt service is given on all work—from a minor adjustment to a motor overhaul. Drive in and see the facts for yourself—there's too much money invested in your Ford car to miss connections with the authorized Ford dealers.

VIRGINIA NEWS

The Dan River Cotton Mills, Danville, operated by a Northern concern, yesterday took a firm stand on the wage question. Yesterday a demand was made by hands for increases in wages of 20 per cent. The company countered yesterday by posting notices saying the mill would operate hereafter three days a week instead of 55 hours a week, and that no increases would be granted.

The right of the State of Virginia to try violators of the Mapp prohibition act since the adoption of the Volstead act under the Eighteenth amendment to the United States Constitution was challenged by Attorney R. L. Radford in the trial at Pulaski of Alexander Hamilton charged with operating a still. Indicted with him are his two sons and his son in law, Attorney Jordan argued to the effect that the Eighteenth amendment and the Volstead act have superseded the State law, and, therefore, the State courts no longer have jurisdiction. Judge Campbell overruled a motion to dismiss the indictment.

Announcement has been made by the Rev. David Hepburn, superintendent of the Virginia Anti-Saloon League, that more than a score of speakers of national reputation are to come to this State within the next few weeks to wage a campaign under the direction of the Virginia League. Each of the speakers will make more than a dozen speeches in behalf of the prohibition cause. One of them is to be W. E. ("Pussyfoot") Johnson, who gave an eye for the cause in England. William Jennings Bryan will likely be included in the list.

The elaborate plan of the Board of Trustees of the Handley Fund for a system of highgrade schools for which approximately $1,700,000 is available, sustained a severe jolt, when the Winchester City Council Wednesday night unanimously adopted a committee report, urging the board to pursue a policy of retrenchment and to modify its plans so that the maintenance of the schools would not become a great burden upon the taxpayers. The board is urged to reconsider the entire project, which already has cost large amounts of money; to eliminate many of the architectural frills and fads, and to abandon the plan of utilizing what is regarded as entirely too much land. Fear was expressed that the bequest of the late Judge John Handley, of Scranton, Pa., would become a "perpetual burden" upon the taxpayers if the present plans of the trustees are carried out.

The Danville chamber of commerce has adopted a stand on the soldier bonus bill similar to that taken by the Danville Tobacco Association which on Wednesday sent resolutions to Washington protesting against the passage of the pending bill.

It was said that about 40 per cent of the ex-service men of the country are actively opposing the proposed legislation. The chamber unanimously adopted a resolution placing the body on record against the bonus proposition.

Land assessors of Virginia at Murphy's Hotel, in Richmond, conferred with members of the State tax board on a plan for more uniform and adequate assessment of real estate. The meeting was called by the tax board acting under authority of an act of the last general assembly. The immediate business was to correct inequalities which for years have existed in the assessment of real property in Virginia, and corrected assessments will take effect in 1921 for a period of five years.

Dan and Harry Tinsley, grocers at Bon Air, near Richmond, waived examinations when arraigned before United States Commissioner Fleg-enheimer on the charge of profiteering in sugar. They were held for the October term of the Federal grand jury under $500 bond each.

Guilty of murder in the second degree of his wife, was the verdict returned against Wilson M. Brokaw, 66 years old, by a jury in Federal Court in Norfolk. Brokaw is alleged to have slain his wife with a hatchet January 6 in their home at Camp Eustis. Brokaw and his wife moved from Chicago to be near their son who was a lieutenant in the army and was stationed at Camp Eustis.

James Bellwood, of Chesterfield county, last member of the old board of directors of the State Penitentiary whom Governor Davis criticized because of alleged bad health conditions existing at the penitentiary and at the State Farm, has tendered his resignation from that body, effective at once.

KEPT HER AWAKE

The Terrible Pains in Back and Sides Cardui Gave Relief

Marksville, La.,—Mrs. Alice Johnson of this place writes: "For one year I suffered with an awful misery in my back and sides. My left side was hurting me all the time. The misery was something awful.

I could not do anything, not even sleep at night. It kept me awake most of the night. I took different medicines, but nothing did me any good or relieved me until I took Cardui.

I was not able to do any of my work for one year and I got worse all the time, was confined to my bed off and on. I got so bad with my back that when I stooped down I was not able to straighten up again. I decided I would try Cardui. By time I had taken the entire bottle I was feeling pretty good and could straighten up and my pains were nearly all gone.

I shal lalways praise Cardui. I continued taking it until I was strong and well." If you suffer from pains due to female complaints, Cardui may women who once suffered in this way now praise Cardui for their present be just what you need. Thousands of good health. Give it a trial.

HOME GARDENING

The Department of the Interior has issued a phamphlet entitled "United States School Garden Army." Some interesting points are as follows:

The success of the garden depends chiefly upon how conscientiously the gardener works. Gardening is a real industry, involving many forces, and demanding intelligent management and persistent labor. The old maxim, "Don't delay until tomorrow what should be done today," needs to be continually practiced.

Forces that control the success of the garden are as follows:

1. Location—The vegetable garden should be located where the plants will receive sufficient sunlight and air.

2.—The soil should be deep, rich, mellow, and well drained.

3.—Only the best vegetable seed, purchased from reliable seedsmen, should be planted.

4.—All vegetable plants, such as cabbage, lettuce, tomatoes, pepper egg plant, and celery, etc., should be grown, not purchased.

Fertilizer.—Make three light applications of commercial fertilizer at intervals during the growing season rather than one heavy application of the entire amount.

6. Cultivation.—The soil between the rows should be kept well hoed. The garden should be free of weeds

7.—Insect enemies and plant diseases—The garden plants should be protected from their insect enemies and plant diseases.

8.—Intensive gardening—Use every square foot of garden space. As soon as one crop is harvested, plant another. A well managed garden is never "laid by."

9. Harvesting—Allow no vegetable to go to waste. Can, dry, or sell what can not be used fresh by the family.

10. Seasons—Practice all year round gardening.

11. Records.—Accurate records of expenditures and receipts should be kept, as well as the dates of planting and of harvesting each crop.

The first institution for the blind was established for soldiers stricken in the Crusades.

SUGAR AND GRAIN SEIZED

Materials Ordered Held if Suspected of Being for Distillers

Richmond, Va., May 8.—Seizure by field agents of all materials destined to be used in the manufacture of liquor was ordered yesterday by S. R. Brame, supervising the Federal prohibition district consisting of the States of Virginia, North and South Carolina, Kentucky and Tennessee.

Not only are these materials, such as sugar, grain, molasses and malt ingredients, to be seized wherever suspected [illegible] for the belief that they will be used in the production of "moonshine," but all suspicious shipments are to be detained.

Mr. Brame believes this new method of dealing with moonshiners will have far reaching effects.

"Are the people of Virginia, or of any State," said Brame, "willing to [illegible] sugar ration while unscrupulous violators of the law are buying and having in their possession quantities of it to be used in whisky manufacture?"

"Thousands of pounds of sugar have been seized within the last few weeks at distilleries. At one distillery in Virginia last week more than two tons were seized 40 miles from the nearest railroad station."
